

Interprofessional Education Gated Questions for Video Series

---

Dental Hygiene

1. What is the most important responsibility for a dental hygienist?
  - a. Take x-rays/radiographs
  - b. Clean teeth
  - c. Assessment, care planning, and dental hygiene therapy***
  - d. Refer to a specialist
2. Which of the following are practice settings for a dental hygienist?
  - a. Private or group practice, community clinics, and public health department
  - b. Education, research, and business owner/entrepreneur
  - c. Sales and professional educator with a dental company
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for a dental hygienist?
  - a. Associate's degree including clinical practice***
  - b. Bachelor's degree including clinical practice
  - c. Master's degree
  - d. Doctorate degree

Public Health

1. What is the most important responsibility for a Public Health Professional?
  - a. Disease prevention and health promotion
  - b. Advocate on behalf of patients and communities
  - c. Monitor the health of the community to ensure no health hazards
  - d. All of the above
2. Which of the following are practice settings for a Public Health Professional?
  - a. Federal government, state and county agencies
  - b. Healthcare settings, corporate wellness facilities
  - c. Universities and research institutions
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for a Public Health Professional?
  - a. Associate's degree
  - b. Bachelor's degree
  - c. Master's degree

- d. Doctorate degree

Health Administration

1. What is the most important responsibility for a health administrator?
  - a. Manages and directs health services for the patient's well-being***
  - b. Manages associates related to the patient
  - c. Work with others such as marketing and public relations
  - d. Budgeting, strategic planning, and project planning
2. Which of the following are practice settings for a health administrator?
  - a. Hospital and long term care
  - b. Retirement homes
  - c. Group practices and public health department
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for a health administrator?
  - a. Associate's degree
  - b. Bachelor's degree***
  - c. Master's degree
  - d. Doctorate degree

Nursing

1. What is the most important responsibility for a registered nurse?
  - a. Safety and quality of patient care
  - b. Assessment, diagnosis within nursing framework, and determine nursing action
  - c. Collaboration of the healthcare team
  - d. Respond to the needs of the patient and influence patient outcomes***
2. Which of the following are practice settings for a registered nurse?
  - a. Hospital and long term care
  - b. Community clinic, public health department, and schools
  - c. Group or private practice
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for a registered nurse?
  - a. Associate's degree***
  - b. Bachelor's degree
  - c. Master's degree
  - d. Doctorate degree

Occupational Therapy

1. What is the most important responsibility of an occupational therapist?
  - a. Help address psychological and emotional issues
  - b. Aid the patient in becoming independent in daily activities***
  - c. Provide support to complete household tasks and childcare
  - d. Help those who have been injured at work
2. Which of the following are practice settings for an occupational therapist?
  - a. Prisons, military, schools, and community agencies
  - b. Hospitals, private practice, and wellness programs
  - c. Nursing homes, rehabilitation facilities
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the current minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for an occupational therapist?
  - a. Associate's degree
  - b. Bachelor's degree
  - c. Master's degree***
  - d. Doctorate degree

Pharmacy

1. What is the most important responsibility for a pharmacist?
  - a. Filling and dispensing of medications
  - b. Understanding diseases to aid in safe patient outcomes
  - c. Consultation with patients regarding safe medication management
  - d. Safe medication therapy and disease management for optimal patient care***
2. Which of the following are practice settings for a pharmacist?
  - a. Community and commercial pharmacy
  - b. Institutional pharmacy and ambulatory care
  - c. Education and research
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for a pharmacist?
  - a. Associate's degree
  - b. Bachelor's degree
  - c. Master's degree
  - d. Doctorate degree***

Physical Therapy

1. What is the most important responsibility for a physical therapist?
  - a. Improve movement for daily activities
  - b. Assessment, diagnosis, and physical therapy or referral***
  - c. Assist hospital patients with movement in preparation for discharge
  - d. Aid with aches and pains of movements
2. Which of the following are practice settings for a physical therapist?
  - a. Hospital, long term care, and outpatient care
  - b. Rehabilitation, skilled nursing facilities, and homecare
  - c. Schools, research, and education
  - d. All of the above***
3. What is the minimum educational requirement/entry level degree for a physical therapist?
  - a. Associate's degree
  - b. Bachelor's degree
  - c. Master's degree
  - d. Doctorate degree***